

NEW INDIAN RESTAURANT IN VARNA

Saturday, 27 March 2010

The 'Gun Gun' opened its doors last May. Situated in the Hotel Chazirno, in the Briz district, my sources inform me that that they have an extensive menu including the normal onion badji, pakora, buttered chicken, samosas etc as well as a very interesting wine list.

Directions - The easiest way to explain it is, if you know how to enter the Briz neighbourhood, keep driving towards the French and Spanish school, and take the first street before you reach the school. (The 'Gun Gun' is sign posted). The turning is the right after a grey metal fence of a construction site. Although a dirt road, please persevere. At the end is the Chazirno Hotel and the restaurant is inside.
